

Celebrating the future leaders and the female pipeline of talent!!! - KKN

Nandini Ashokumar received the Rising Star India 2016 Award in Education and Leadership category in an even organised to highlight the achievements of the female talent pipeline across India August. The Top 50 women in non-managerial positions from a range of industries were chosen as a Rising Stars in recognition of their achievements.

On 9th November 2016, We Are The City India presented the winners of the Top 50 Rising Star awards with trophies, in a ceremony at JW Marriott, Juhu, Mumbai.

This is how WATC defines a Rising Star ,

- Someone who is making a difference in their industry
Someone who strives to achieve success and results,
- Someone who demonstrates passion and drive
Someone who gives back or inspires others
Someone who is recognised by others as having the potential to become a future leader in their industry,
- Someone who is a champion of women in their business or sector.

Roving Reporters

KKN