

CELEBRATION OF LIBRARY WEEK

“Books are the plane and the train, and the road. They are the journey and the destination. They are home.”

On this note, the students of PSBB T. Nagar celebrated the valedictory of the Library Week Celebrations on the 28th November, 2016. The Chief Guest was Mrs. Malathy Santhanam, Vice Principal, PSBB, K.K.Nagar and the Guest of Honour was Mrs. Geeta Doctor – an eminent freelance journalist. It was an honour to have Dr. (Mrs.) YGP – Dean and Director & Mrs. Sheela Rajendra – Deputy Dean and Director of the PSBB Group of schools grace the occasion, along with special invitees.

After an invocation to the Almighty, Sadhana and Arjun of STD VIII B presented the report of the activities conducted during the Library week celebrations. The activities included Word pick, Draw your favourite character, Visual Storytelling, Autobiography of a book, Quiz on favourite authors and books, Slogan writing on Books, Library/Reading, Collage on Geek Mythology and an advertisement of a book in the classic series.

This was followed by an exciting quiz on authors, books and quotes for students of classes 6 to 8, conducted by Shruthi Balaji and Rakshita of STD VIII B, won by students of the D section. The next item was a depiction of favourite characters by students of classes 3, 4 & 5 from books of selected authors such as Enid Blyton, Oscar Wilde and Sudha Murthy. To commemorate the 400th death anniversary of William Shakespeare students presented an adapted version of “A Midsummer Night’s Dream” in Sanskrit. It was very well received by the audience.

Character Costume

Sanskrit Play

Students of class VIII participated in a panel discussion on the topic “Reading habits are dwindling with the advent of gadgets”. After the special guests shared their thoughts on the programme, the prize winners of the various competitions received their prizes from them.

The programme was enjoyed by all the invitees and left everyone enriched as well as appreciative of the joy of reading.

IVY SCRIBES- Media Club

PSBB T. Nagar