

Winning streak

Srivats. Rand Srivats Gopal of PSBB T.Nagar, maintained their positions as winners in the Hindu Young World Quiz for Junior which they had won last year too. What was more exciting was the lead by which they left the second team behind, nearly 45 points. Congratulations to the quizzers, you have done the school proud!!!!!!!

It is worth mentioning that two teams of T.Nagar school made it to the final six among 80 teams in the 6th Position the second team comprising of Sanjana Bhat and Sahitya. An extremely creditable performance by all the students. Way to go!!!

PSBB excels in The Hindu Young World Quiz
 Six teams in junior and senior categories fight it out at the competition

REKHANA SUBRAMANIAN
 CHENNAI

If someone were to ask you what is the branch in Zoology which studied birds known as or showed you a picture of a door in a World Heritage Site and asked its name or asked you to name the series which features Princess Morbucks, would you know the answers?

Well, you would have known if you had taken part in the 17th edition of The Hindu Young World Quiz competition held in Chennai. More than 600 students in the Juniors and Senior category took part. The quiz was conducted by quizmaster V.V. Ramanan.

Juniors category
 As many as 135 teams in the Preliminary round answered 25 questions to make it to the top six for the finals. Two teams from Padma Seshadri Bal Bhavan T. Nagar, St. Patrick's Puducherry, SBOA School, HLC International and National Public School were the six teams who made it to the finals. All the teams had to go through five rounds which comprised general knowledge ques-as well as visual and multi-media questions. Defending champions Srivats R. and Srivats Gopal stayed on top right throughout as they got 145 points. Coming second was the all girls team G.S.S.S. Praneetha and Shruthi, Class VI students from St. Patrick's Puducherry who scored 80 points. S. Amudhu and M. Ganeshkaran, Class V students from SBOA School came third with 50 points.

As many as 186 teams from Class VII, VIII, and IX fought hard to make it the finals. The teams that made it were Padma Seshadri Bal Bhavan T. Nagar, St. Patrick's Puducherry, Aditya Vidyashram, The Study Puducherry, Padma Seshadri Millennial School and AMM Matriculation Higher Secondary School.

The entire finale which had 24 questions on a grid was also a buzzer round giving the teams a chance to score points or lose point with every correct and wrong answer.

R. Mithuna Krishna and B. Vaishnavi, Class VIII students from St. Patrick's, Puducherry came second with 105 points and Abhijith G. and Udbhav K. Class VII Students from PSBB Millennium were the second Runners up. The chief guests were R. S Priya, Head, Coporate Marketing Services, Blue Star Ltd.

Sponsors for event
 Camlin Mechanical Pencils was the presenting sponsor. National gift sponsor were BSA Ladybird and Hercules. The event was supported by LIC. The regional sponsor was Blue Star and regional gift sponsor, JFA Modfurn. Fun Partner was Fun City and gifts were given by Funschool, Huntershirt and Roshan bags. Vouchers were given by Kiddy Kuts and Lawrence and Mayo. Beverage partner was Nestle India. The venue partner was Anna Adarsh College for Women.

Young talent: Winners of The Hindu Young World Quiz held in Chennai on Sunday. S. Jothi Ramalingam

IVY SCRIBES – Media Club

PSBB T. Nagar