

AWARD FOR THEATRE PERFORMANCE

“Versatile, sincere, dedicated and very quick to grasp dialogues”, that is how many describe K. Visweshwaran of IV A, P.S.B.B T. Nagar who has been part of more than 10 stage plays of Kalamandir written and directed by Sri Bombay Chanakya. Beginning his theatrical journey in 2015, playing “Billu”, a child addicted to gadgets, Visweshwaran, more popularly known as Vichu, has adorned many characters including Lord Ganesha, in the more recent historical extravaganza MeendumAvvaiyar. He has won appreciation from co-artists and the audience alike.

His role as “Arjun” in PoruthathuPothum, a production of Kalamandir where he plays the role of a straight forward child of a murderer, has been one of the most appreciated roles. His efforts for this role have been recognised in the form of the Best Child Artiste Award from Mylapore Academy.

IVY SCRIBES – Media Club

PSBB T. Nagar