

Sri Ramanujar Sahasrabdi celebrations at PSBB T. Nagar

The year 2017 being the 1000th birth anniversary of Sri Ramanujar , the great philosopher and social reformer, PSBB T. Nagar conducted several activities to pay homage to him as well as create awareness about him and his contribution to society.

Students of the school were first addressed in detail about Sri Ramanuja bringing out his philosophy through stories of episodes from his life. The Primary students beautifully drew and coloured pictures of Sri Ramanuja as well incidents about him. Each day, a Pasuram from Ramanuja Nuttrandhadhi was recited and the meaning was explained. The “Thought for the day” brought out the various qualities of Sri Ramanuja through anecdotes from his life.

Over 30 students of class 1 to 5 participated in a recitation competition of few pasurams from Ramanuja Nuttrandhadhi. Students were taught “Sriranga Gadyam” a work of Sri Ramanuja in prose form.

On 3rd April 2017, the students took out a rally around the school, carrying placards with information on Sri Ramanujar and his preaching’s. This culminated in a grand celebration titled 'Uyya orey Vazhi Udaiyavar Thiruvadi', incorporating dance, drama, speech, recitation and song . It was attended by Dr. (Mrs) YGP, Dean and Director, Mrs. Sheela Rajendra, Deputy Dean and Director, Mr. Zakir Hussain, well known Bharatnatyam dancer and research scholar, heads of schools and parents.

An exhibition was organised in school, featuring the art work done by the students on Ramanuja as well as models of different episodes and preaching from his life.

The cultural programme as well as the exhibition was highly appreciated by all the visitors.

To spread awareness among the community, the students staged a performance at Jeeva Park in T. Nagar on 4th April 2017 from 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. This was very well received by the public.

It is hoped that the social philosophy of Sri Ramanujar of equality, care, concern and respect beyond all boundaries of caste, creed and religion will be embraced by all.
