

EUREKA! GLORY AT SCIENCE QUIZ

An interschool science quiz titled 'Eureka' was conducted on 12 September 2017 by the Council of Scientific & Industrial Research (CSIR), Chennai. The team from PSBB Nungambakkam, consisting of S. Aadithya (XI – B), S. Arjun (XI – A) and M. Tarun Prasad (XI – B) bagged the first place in the quiz.

The quiz was hosted by the well-known quizmaster, Mr. V. V. Ramanan of Young World Quiz fame. Over 25 teams competed in the quiz from various schools across Chennai and Puducherry. After an enthralling written preliminary round, the top six teams were selected for the on-stage finals.

Seven exhilarating rounds and over a hundred questions later, the quiz ended with a nail biting finish. PSBB Nungambakkam edged past AMM Matriculation School by a mere 4 points!

The winning team was awarded a trophy for the school, along with individual shields, certificates and a cash prize of Rs. 3000 each.

Eureka 2017 was an excellent opportunity for the participants as well as the audience to enrich their grey matter, amidst the intense competition and excitement.
