

YOUNG PSBBians spread cheer

Participants of the Skit

PSBBians with the residents

Twenty four Students of Std I of PSBB T.Nagar visited an Orphanage for girls – “Asha Nivas” in Nungambakkam on 6th January, 2018 (Saturday). This was one of the initiatives taken to participate in social welfare as part of the Diamond Jubilee Celebrations of the School.

Skit on Safety measures during fire

Skit on Mall Safety

Important emergency numbers

PSBB students presented safety tips through a skit.

Students gifted stationery items and snacks to the residents. This activity instilled the value of social responsibility. Children of Asha Nivas expressed their thanks. It was a very happy and fulfilling experience for all those who were a part of it.

IVY SCRIBES – Media Club

PSBB T. Nagar