

STUDENTS PERFORM CARNATIC KUTCHERI

It was a moment of great pride when students of PSBB T.Nagar were chosen after audition by Sundaram Finance to give a 'Carnatic Kutcheri' performance during the Mylapore Music Festival on 4/1/18 at Nageswara Rao park, Mylapore.

The rendition for an hour comprised of compositions of famous composers like Saint Thyagaraja, Sri Purandaradasar, Sri Annamacharyar, Sri NarayanaTheerthar, Arunagirinadhar, Andal and so on.

The mike-less Kutcheri by the students from Std IV to VIII was very well acknowledged and appreciated by the public and the organisers.

MYLAPORE FESTIVAL: DAY ONE

1. Students of Anthara Centre for Performing Arts, headed by Bharatanatyam dancer Sreelatha Vinod, put up a dance production titled 'Sivam'. The main stage events on Jan 4, day one of the Sundaram Finance Mylapore Festival, were held inside Sri Kapali Temple, Mylapore. The events on the weekend will be held at Sannidhi Street, outside the east gopuram of the temple.
2. This year, as always, the Sundaram Finance Mylapore Festival was launched in the evening with a nadaswaram kutcheri by the students of guru Mylai Rajendran.
3. Old lamps, copper vessels, radios, pen stands, gramophones and other items were exhibited opposite Rasi Stores on Sannidhi Street.
4. A vibrant and colourful dance performance was given by the students of Nritya Samsrti, choreographed by their guru Vaidehi Harish.
5. A mikeless kutcheri by the students of Padma Seshadri Bala Bhavan, T. Nagar was held at Nageswara Rao, Park, Luz on Jan 4 morning.
6. The artistes of Raman Smaraka Thira Poothan Kali Sangam, a folk group from Kerala, danced with huge props on their heads, to drum beats.
7. Students of Mylapore based Hamsanadam Music School, run by vocalist Shubha Ganesan, sang songs and bhajans at the festival.
8. Photos of scenes at Mylapore in the 1960s and 70s are displayed on the pavement near Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Mylapore. Curious seniors were seen browsing through old pictures of R. R. Sabha, Kamadhenu Theatre at Luz and other landmarks.
