

A LITERARY DELIGHT

The Library Week celebrations at PSBB T.Nagar for 2017-18 was a cauldron of activities. Competitions were planned for all students right from class I. Students of class 1 had to unscramble jumbled words in “Jumble Mumble”. Students of class 2 made beautiful book marks. Class 3 students had to complete a conversation in “Join the conversation”. Class 4 students participated in ‘From Character to Story’ in which they had to identify the characters from the story while the activity class 5 was ‘From Picture to Frame’. In this, they had to identify the book from which a particular movie was made. Students of class 6 worked in groups and made collages of classics with famous dialogues in the form of speech bubbles. Class 7 students were asked to guess the idioms with the help of pictures and clues given. Students of class 8 illustrated dialogues of scenes from Merchant of Venice.

As a culmination of the activities, the valedictory function was held on 6th February 2018. The chief guest was Mrs. Malathi Rangarajan, Ex. Senior Editor, The Hindu. She is also a freelance journalist and a chronicler for the PSBB group of schools.

Panel Discussion on Importance & Benefits of reading books

The programme began with a presentation of the activities of the library week. This was followed by a quiz covering different books, authors, quotes and book covers. The next activity was a character parade by students of class 3 to 8 depicting characters from different genres of books. This was not only very informative but also very colourful as the children wore the costumes of the respective characters. Towards the end there was a panel discussion about the “Importance and benefits of reading books”.

Mrs. Malathi, in her address, first showed a short film, "A cup of tea" which depicted the yearning of rural children to go to school. She asked students to develop the habit of reading and widen their horizon of knowledge and vocabulary. The audience received her speech with great applause. .

Mrs. Vijayalakshmi Raman, Principal PSBB Siruseri also appreciated the programme and congratulated the students and teachers on their creativity.

Students who won the competitions received their prizes and the function came to a close.
