

Visit to the School for Under-privileged

Dorothy Day once said, “The best thing to do with the best things in life is to give them away”

PSBB has always instilled the importance of sharing what we have with others. Every month, the students sincerely contributed a little something to make the lives of those in Pratyasha more comfortable – an activity conducted as a part of the “Joy of Giving”.

This time, to truly feel the joy of giving and experience it with the students at Kalvialaya, the students of class 11 visited these underprivileged children on 13th January, Saturday, to celebrate Pongal with them.

The school started by Mr. Selvaraj, a resident of Pilapur and an alumnus of PSBB, is a God-sent to the students of the village. Kalvialaya is a noble institution that serves as a platform for the underprivileged students of Pilapur village, Chengalpattu district.

Amidst the sprawling fields and lush greenery, the village atmosphere was one of happiness and joy as the students and teachers of Kalvialaya warmly welcomed the visitors from PSBB with music and dance.

A puppet show was staged by the visiting students to highlight the importance of learning and nurturing education and other life skills. The dance programme by either side was initiation of band that will last for ever.

The class 11 students spent their time with the students of students of Kalvialaya, which gave them an insight into a deeper understanding of ‘Joy of giving’!

This experiential learning was indeed a take away gift for the learners.
