

SPENDING TIME WITH THE LESS FORTUNATE

On 29th September, 2018 few of us were taken to Music Academy to witness a performance by the mentally and Physically challenged, conducted by Sakthi Foundation. The school had asked those who wanted to participate to register and my friends and I along with a few others from Std. VI to VIII went promptly to give our names to the office.

On 29th, we all reported to school in our uniform at 8.45 am sharp and immediately boarded the school bus. On reaching Music academy, we arranged ourselves in an orderly manner and took a photograph with the disabled children, helping them reach the interior of the hall while entertaining them with our talk on the way. After this we seated ourselves in the first floor, waiting eagerly to witness the large platter of talent that the children were about to showcase.

It started with a wonderful introductory song by Dr. Subramaniam, followed by the lighting of the lamp which officially commenced the programme. It was a very spectacular performance, highlighting dance and music accompanied by lively and rhythmic songs which left us in no doubt that even if these children are less fortunate than us in terms of physical or mental health, they are full of talent and look forward to an opportunity to display the same.

Many schools provided for an enthusiastic audience. Encouraged by our cheers and applause, smile sprouted on their lovely faces which was really very wonderful and inspiring for all of us.

We thank our school for providing us with this wonderful opportunity which also served as a conclusion to our term holidays.
