

Fostering Women's Honour

Kanya Vandhanam and Suhasini Vandhanam

In India women are considered as embodiment of Goddess Shakti. They are revered through Kanya Vandhanam and Suhasini Vandhanam in every family. As a part of IMCTF PSBB Siruseri organized Kanya Vandhanam and Suhasini Vandhanam to foster Women's Honour on 19th October 2018.

Mr. G. Subramanian (member of IMCTF) was the Chief Guest for this program. Students of classes I, II & III were the enthusiastic audience. Boys of Std III performed padma pooja for the girls. Goodies were given to all participants.

In his speech Mr. G. Subramaniyam praised the students for their realisation of the merit of women at home, society and the world at large. He appreciated the complete participation of students in highlighting the greatness of women. He also brought to the notice of the audience that such a celebration is needed in the present scenario where women are not treated with respect and dignity.
