

Shri Gurubhyo Namaha!

One book, one pen, one child, and one teacher can change the world.

The heads and teaching faculty of PSBB Group of Schools, the heads and teachers of city schools and the special invitees were enlightened by a special lecture on “Shri Gurubhyo Namaha- Teachers in changing times by Shri N.Venkataraman, Senior Advocate, Supreme Court of India, on 20th December 2018 at Dr. (Mrs.) YGP Auditorium.

Shri Venkataraman spoke on the three kinds of supreme love that one enjoys in his lifetime. The love of a spiritual guru, the unconditional love of a mother and the kindness and caring love shown by a teacher that can guide and lead a person to great heights. He insisted that any individual who thinks of his education remembers only his teachers and not the techniques and methods he followed to remember concepts.

He emphasized on how it is the obligation of every teacher to fill a child’s life with fine emotions and abundant encouragement and ensure that the child develops a sound character. He said that it is the essential duty of every teacher to evolve a child with personality and not individuality.

The lecture was followed by a question answer session. He spoke at length on the role of parents in nurturing and moulding children.

It was a mind-blowing, information-packed lecture session. Teachers understood the pivotal role they play in a student’s life and the commitment they need to exhibit to achieve it.
