

A Model effort by PSBB !

PSBB MUN 2020

The campus of PSBB Nungambakkam buzzed with activity on Friday 21st February 2020 and Saturday 22nd 2020 as students from 9 city schools gathered to participate in one of the most celebrated and popular student events- 'Model United Nations.'

Inaugurated at 8.30 am on the 21st February by the Dean & Director and Correspondent, Mrs. Sheela Rajendra, the event was declared open formally by the Secretary General of MUN 2020, Adithya J. Nair of std. XI A.

Issues of international importance were deliberated upon by delegates representing various countries and moderated by experienced senior students, called 'Chairpersons'. There were five committees- The United Nations Security Council, The United Nations Human Rights Council, The World Intellectual Property Organisation, The United Nations Environment Programme and The United Nations Office on drugs and crime.

The sense of decorum and protocol maintained by the participants in all the rooms was highly appreciated by the Principal, Mrs. Vasanthi S. "I am sure this is one of the best events in student life!" she remarked.

The valedictory programme was held at 2.30 pm on the 22nd February. The chief guest, Dr. N. Krishnakumar, President, OISCA International, Tamilnadu congratulated the school authorities for giving students such a unique opportunity to understand and discuss the major issues of the world at a young age and to come up with solutions as well. "There were no such events in our time" he said, congratulating the teachers and the student organisers as well. He urged students to have "green thoughts and approach anything they do with passion and compassion" in his message about forest conservation. "We should live in harmony with our natural resources. It is important to stay in touch and give back to our motherland" he added.

The summary of the various committees was given by the students of the Executive board- Shruti Balaji, Ansh Bomb, Aadithya J. Nair, A. Sadhana, Arvind Sivaram, Rishi Ganesh, Aakhil Ahmed, Jebran Irshad, Abhishek S.A., Akshara S., L.V. Shreeram. The research done by the 'first timers' and their performance was highly commended by the student leaders, who also announced the names of the winners.

Prizes were awarded to the Best delegates in the committees under various categories. PSBB Siruseri was declared the 'Best School' and won the rolling shield. The event was then pronounced 'closed' by the student Secretary General. After a formal 'Vote of thanks' and the singing of the national anthem, the students left the campus enriched and enlightened by their unique and rewarding intellectual experience!
