Musical Tribute to Gurus

On the occasion of Guru Poornima, PSBB K.K. Nagar students took us on a reverential journey of Guru Sishya Parampara with different expressions of Guru Bhakthi. Indeed 'Being a teacher is the highest privilege and having one is the best blessing'.

The presentation began with an explanation of the word 'GURU', the remover of darkness, followed by a Thirumandiram by Thirumoolar setting tone for the day's proceedings. This was followed by Adi Sankara's famed Guru Stothram, Abhang composed by Saint Eknath for his Guru Jaganath Swami. A live-action portrayal of Rabindranath Tagore's poem, "Where the Mind Is Without Fear" capturing the essence of a visionary's dream was a dedication to educationist par excellence, Mrs. YGP, the founder of PSBB Group of Schools. For the finale, the graceful dancers of our school performed the Guru Ashtakam, a melodious hymn composed by Adi Sankara, which was a remarkable feast for the eyes.

The aura of reverence in the atmosphere was far too evident underscoring the faith that teachers can transform lives with just the right mix of chalk, technology, kindness and challenges.
