

AN ARTISTIC 'BRUSH' WITH J.K. ROWLING

Parvathi Subramanian of Class VII-B of PSBB T.Nagar has the proud privilege of her entry being shortlisted as one of the top 340 entries (out of 18000+ submissions) in the International Illustration Competition held by the renowned author J K Rowling (of Harry Potter fame) for her new children's book, 'The Ickabog'. Though Parvathi's entry did not get selected among the final top 35 winners, she will receive a certificate and copy of the book after it is published in December 2020. for having made it to the shortlist.

The letter from the organisers addressed to Parvathi and her mother says the following-

The Ickabog Illustration Competition ("Competition") – shortlisted artwork for Instalment 8 - Lord Spittleworth and his glass of wine , I am writing further to our email of 27th July 2020 when we informed you that we would like to shortlist Parvathi's artwork identified above which you submitted for the Competition (the "Artwork") regarding The Ickabog book (the "Book"). Many congratulations to both of you!

Heartiest congratulations to Parvathi!

Illustration for 'Lord Spittleworth and his glass of wine'

IVY SCRIBES – Media Club

PSBB T. Nagar