

PADMA SESHADRI BALA BHAVAN SENIOR SECONDANDRY SCHOOL, SIRUSERI

(2020-2021)

The Saturday Literary

"Drama is like life with the dull bits cut out" said Alfred Hitchcock. And our literary club has proved that right. The session was conducted by Ms.Meenakshi Bhutani, Ms.Sharon, Ms.Mubeena, Ms.Gayathri, Ms.Leena, Ms.Shinu and the students of the literary club.

The session commenced with an entertaining play titled "The Bird with the Golden wings" written by Sudha Murthy. This was performed by the students of class VI. The creative, tech savvy students quickly changed their virtual backgrounds to enact the actual story. The characters included S.Sushrutha Varadhan 6D who played the the roles of an Interviewer and Varsha's mother, Kamna Murugan 6D acted as Sudha Murthy ,Bollu Jayana Chidananda Rao 6D as the narrator ,V.Smrithi 6C donned the role of Varsha, Srimedha Purini 6B1 as Kapila and S.Natvej 6D played the Golden Bird.

"Poetry is the rhythmical creation of beauty in words". To justify this statement we had Arjun Kumar of XI B1 who recited a self-composed poem about a man who embraced Darkness. "Nothing is good or bad but thinking makes it so. Next Karri Mahija Venkatasai of IX B1 acted out the opening phrase of the famous soliloquy rendered by Prince Hamlet "To be, or not to be "In William Shakespeare's play Hamlet. She captivated the audience with her voice modulation.

. "Music gives soul to the universe, wings to the mind, Flight to the imagination and life to everything." Isha of VII C1 took us on a ride through a field of musical note when she sang a melodious song that she had written all by herself in 1 day. "Breathe in experience, breathe out poetry." In this pandemic situation our health is of utmost importance. Smrithi Venugopal had composed a rhyming and easy to remember poem on how to take care of ourselves. We have all seen the beauty of the sun's rays as it shyly peeks from behind the horizon. But Saanvi Maity of VII C1 composed an alluring poem on the elegance of the early morning rays. Everyone knows who Nancy Drew is. With her red-blonde hair, blue eyes, perfect figure and a brilliant mind she is many girls role model. P.D Prapti of VII B1 adores her too and wrote an engaging poem about her. All students were earnest listeners and maintained complete discipline.

With all of these young poets and actors expressing their hidden talents in the literary club, the time flew leaving a magical imprint in the minds of the members.
