

A Celebration of Success!
At the Prize Distribution Ceremony Std.XII (2019-20)

The atmosphere pulsed with excitement and nostalgia at 10.45 A.M. on Saturday the 21st of November 2020 as the prize winners of Std. XII of the academic year 2019-20 gathered to attend the eagerly awaited Annual Prize Distribution Function. The event was screened through Zoom as a livestream from Youtube and graced by the Dean and Director and Correspondent, Mrs Sheela Rajendra, the Principal of PSBB Nungambakkam, Mrs.Vasanthi S. Teachers, parents and the students of Std XII attended the programme, which commenced with a melodious invocation to the Almighty. Mrs. Vasanthi S. warmly welcomed the chief Guest, Prof. S. Sudarshan, Professor at the Computer Science and Engineering Department and Deputy Director, IIT Bombay, and a proud alumnus of PSBB, all the dignitaries,parents,staff and students to the function, invoking the 'divine blessings of Dr.Mrs.Y.G.P'

'Success means different things to different people, and can be achieved in various fields', said, Prof. Sudarshan,in his address, highlighting the significance and role of success in the lives of students. He congratulated the prize winners and motivated all the students to aim for success and to be the best in any field they chose.

The Dean and Director and Correspondent, Mrs. Sheela Rajendra, congratulated the prize winners, teachers and parents and encouraged the students to always put in their "best efforts." A video illustrating the highlights of the academic year 2019-20 was played, showcasing the diverse assortment of events and programs conducted by PSBB Nungambakkam, adding to the nostalgia in the air.

Numerous prizes, including allrounders, subject proficiency, full attendance ,rolling trophies and scholarships were announced for achievements in academic as well as extracurricular activities.They ranged from athletics to debating and music and were a validation of the abundant talent among the students, besides their meritorious performance in the Class 12 board examinations.Awards recognizing the social service, good conduct and values of the students were also announced. Digital photographs were taken of the prize winners with the chief guest and dignitaries after every set of prizes was announced. The academic and co-curricular achievements of the students were played in a video during the programme, apart from the calendar of events, showcasing the ongoing events this year.

This year a new award, the Krishnan Ishwar Memorial Prize, in memory of Late Mr. Krishnan Ishwar of the 1973 Matric Batch, a brilliant student who was cherished by all his teachers and batchmates for his inspiring personality, was instituted by his classmates for the 'Best All Rounder in Std.XII.The first proud recipient of the award was Shравanthi M. of Std XII A (2019-20) It was an emotional moment as Mr. Ishwar's family and his close friends fondly remembered Mr. Ishwar and reminisced their time with him.

The event was indeed a memorable experience, which stimulated students to follow their own path to success!

