

Science Day Celebrations

Science Day of PSBB T. Nagar was held on zoom platform on March 5th 2022.

The Special Guest was Dr. K. Subramanian, Senior Vice President at Ashok Leyland.

The chief guest on the occasion was Dr. Ansal Ali, Deputy Director, Marine Products Exports Development Authority MPEDA, Regional Division, Chennai.

Mrs. Deepalakshmi, working at Ashok Leyland Product Development Center was the guest speaker.

Shriya Kannan of 7C explained the importance of the International Year of Artisanal Fisheries and Aquaculture, by explaining how it makes up 50% of the food we eat and also how the constant killing of marine animals has an impact on the world we live in.

The importance of the second theme - International year of Glass was highlighted as she explained the various uses of glass in our daily life, and how it has transformed the world.

Mrs. Deepalakshmi then shared her presentation on the various uses of glass in our daily life, and different types of glass. She talked about the composition, application and properties of various types of class like, Soda lime Glass, Lead glass, Armored glass, Coloured glass, etc.

Following Mrs. Deepalakshmi's presentation, the Science & Innovation Club Secretaries Hariharan (8D) and Parvathi(8B) presented the highlights of the various activities done in each class to celebrate Science Day by students from classes Pre-KG to 8.

The Science Day quiz 'Mind O Meter', hosted by Quiz Club Secretaries Arnav(8D) and Dhruva (8C) was topped by Kausthub (8C), followed by Aashritha (6C) and Rushil (7C) .

'Kattukuppam: The Village of Receding Sands' was a skit presented to create awareness of how the village people lost their fishing livelihood due to pollution and human interference.

The audience was briefed about the AK Samban Award for Creativity in Science, the annual competition open to classes 6, 7 and 8. The judges for this year's event were Dr. Priyatha Premnath and Dr. Gopinath Palamanickam from the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee. The winning project a Smart Security System by P. Hariharan(8D) and Gowtham Vasanth(8A), and the two runners up of the project were the Mask Dispensing Machine by Akshath Rao(7C) and Shreehari (7C) and the Stand-Alone table for inpatients by C.K. Jagruti (8D). The winners were announced by Vice Principal, Mrs. Durga Chandrasekar.

Dr. K. Subramanian spoke about the excitement of science and shared a short story on how he was inspired to explore the subject. He concluded his brief talk by encouraging the students to explore and question everything around them.

Dr. Ansar Ali then shared a presentation on the basics of Aquaculture. He spoke about Indian fisheries, various processes in aquaculture, displayed and explained various species of shrimp and fish that are used commercially. He also spoke about farming systems.

The Science Day celebrations ended with appreciation from all the guests about the quality of the programs presented and the initiatives taken by the school management to foster scientific temper in students.

IVY SCRIBES – Media Club
PSBB T. Nagar