

Tribes Vibes

A fancy-dress competition not only blends learning with fun but also develops confidence in students by giving them an opportunity to speak in front of their own classmates.

To celebrate this fun-filled learning activity, children of Std One showcased the various tribes of India. The idea was to celebrate Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav and make these earthlings more inclusive. They came dressed to represent the various tribes from all over India. The children highlighted the cultural, social and economical life of the tribes with pride and gaiety.

We had our children showcasing the tribes from the Mathasya kingdom, the followers of the Bonga and the Kui speaking Konds. The awesome Angamis also had a lot to share.

The participants brought to life the very essence of the tribes by describing their individual talents, unique dressing sense and multi-faceted capabilities like puppetry, basket weaving, farming. They also spoke about the importance they give to music and dance and how it's a part of their daily life.
